*secondary school credit – If the secondary school is not offering the course(s), and the district requests that the student enrol in order to meet graduation requirements, the student will not be charged course fees by College of the Rockies. College of the Rockies will assign a letter and percentage grade and submit to the secondary school.

**dual credit – College of the Rockies will assign a letter and percentage grade and submit to the secondary school. The course will count as a secondary school course, and also as a post-secondary course. College course fees will be charged to the student. If the high school is paying for the course, the student must provide proof of sponsorship by the fee deadlines or at time of registration. All course text books and supplies are provided by the student.
