Information

Welcome to Co-Curricular.

As a COTR student, you can participate in many volunteer and paid opportunities to gain hands-on experience at College of the Rockies outside of your academic program. This is a great way to supplement your academic program with practical skills and experience! Your participation also contributes to a more vibrant College atmosphere. Learn about these opportunities and more at: Learn more.

Check out the Co-Curricular Catalogue for a list of diverse opportunities. It's as simple as:

- Participate - Take part in an opportunity
- Validate - Reflect and choose your competencies
- Communicate - Share your Experience Record

Co-Curricular is a tool for tracking your involvement in volunteer and paid opportunities at COTR. For information and instructions on how to apply for co-curricular positions, add competencies that relate to your experiences, and share it with an institution you are applying for or a potential employer, please check out Co-Curricular (link to web page) or contact CCR@cotrbc.ca

Your Experience Record provides a way to demonstrate all your hands-on experience in one place. It consists of your involvement in co-curricular activities, and practicum and co-op placements. It can be used for scholarships, bursaries, jobs, and/or LinkedIn profiles.
